

Jermyn Street Theatre - London SW1Y 6ST  MAP  Piccadilly Circus tube

Jeremy Hunter presents his acclaimed one-man illustrated show

North Korea Exposed: Propaganda and the Cult of the Kim/daily life in the Hermit Kingdom

Previously at Hay-on-Wye Literary Festival,
Royal Geographical Society, Royal Scottish
Geographical Society in Aberdeen, Dundee, Dunfermline, Edinburgh, Glasgow - and Pleasance Theatre Islington

Amazing talk - unbelievable if it wasn't true

Spell-binding

Astounding

Wow! Amazing scary place, amazing talk

A revealing insight commanding rapt attention

A battery of facts; an incredible tour de force of reportage and geography

Hauntingly scary but at the same time fascinating

Tickets: £10.00. £8.00 Concessions

Box Office: 0207 287 2875

Click here to book online

Book early - just 75 seats available

OffWestEnd.com is London's first collective listings site entirely dedicated to London theatres outside the mainstream... where you can browse through to find out about the full spectrum of performances going on outside the West End and buy tickets directly from the theatres without any fees or commission ever being charged by us. Enjoy!

Click here to visit www.OffWestEnd.com now!

Jeremy Hunter Propaganda and the Cult of the Kim: Daily Life in the Hermit Kingdom

Jeremy Hunter has spent 35 years witnessing and photographing some remarkable sights around the world.

An avid adventurer, he ventured to North Korea specifically to photograph Arirang, a mass celebration of the life of the Eternal Leader, Kim Il-Sung, and the daily lives of North Koreans today.

JERMYN
STREET
THEATRE

WEDNESDAY 24TH JUNE
AT 1.00PM

TICKETS: £10.00 £8.00 concessions
Box Office: 0207 287 2875

On at

Jermyn Street Theatre

16b Jermyn Street
London SW1Y 6ST

24 JUNE 1PM

 MAP

 Piccadilly Circus tube